George James Molle was born at Mains, Chirnside, Berwickshire in 1773, the son of John and Margaret (nee Crow) Mow, established members of Scottish landed gentry. At the request of William Mow, George's eldest brother, the family name was changed to Molle by an Act of Sederunt of the Court of Petty Sessions on 11 August 1789.

In June 1793 George Molle was commissioned as an Ensign in the Scotch Brigade, later the 94th Foot. On 12 May 1794 he was promoted to Lieutenant and on 1 July 1795 to Captain in the army and then on 29 March 1798 Captain in the Scotch Brigade. On 3 September 1803 he became a Major with the 8th Battalion Reserve and on 2 June 1804 he moved to the 9th Foot attaining the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel on 2 September 1808. He was appointed Lieutenant-Colonel of the 46th Foot on 3 June 1813 and on 20 June 1813 he was commissioned as Lieutenant Governor of the Colony of New South Wales. George Molle was appointed brevet Colonel on 4 June 1814.

In 1799 Captain Molle served in the 4th Mysore War with the Scotch Brigade. He was wounded at Seringapatam on 27 April 1799. He was stationed in India and Egypt where he was Aide-de-Camp to General Sir Douglas Baird in 1801-2. In 1803 he returned to England with dispatches from 1st Marquess Wellesley and after a few years he then served against Portugal and was severely wounded on 17 August 1808 at the Battle of Rolicca, the first battle of the Peninsular War. After returning for a short while to England to recuperate he returned to Portugal and took part in the action near Oporto on 28 March 1809.

Molle had become acquainted with Lachlan Macquarie in India and Egypt in 1801-2 when they both served under Major General Baird. They met up again in 1805 on a visit to see General Baird but did not meet again until George Molle arrived in Sydney as commanding officer of the 46th Regiment of Foot to take up his appointment as Lieutenant-Governor of NSW. To honour his appointment a dinner party was held at Government House in Sydney on 28 March 1814 and on that occasion the departing Lieutenant-Governor, Lieutenant-Colonel O'Connell was also toasted.

George Molle and his wife took an active part in the Sydney society becoming patrons of the Female Orphan School and served on the committee of the Institution for the Civilisation, care and education of aborigines. Molle was also a member of the Masonic Lodge of Social and Military Virtues No.227 and participated in the first public Masonic ceremony in Port Jackson on 2 November 1816, namely the laying of the foundation stone of Masonic Brother Captain John Piper's house at Point Eliza, now known as Point Piper.

Unfortunately Molle and Macquarie had a falling out and things between him and his regiment with Macquarie and others such as William Wentworth became quite bitter. Finally Macquarie requested that the 46th Regiment be removed and in August 1817 the 48th Regiment arrived to relieve it. George Molle would later die at Belgaum, India on 9 September 1823. His son, William Macquarie Molle, inherited The Molle's Maines Estate in NSW, a land grant at Currans Hill made to Molle in 1816.

George Molle is remembered by a small stream near the NSW town of Wellington which was named Molle Rivulet in his honour by the Surveyor-General John Oxley in 1817. Also, in Queensland's Whitsunday islands there was a small group named the Molle group, North, South, Mid and West Molle, by Lieutenant Charles Jeffries RN. West Molle was later renamed Daydream Island. The other islands still bear his name.

Together with a considerable amount of research including copies of his various Oaths and Declarations when being sworn in as Lieutenant-Governor.

DCM: Military Order 28/1/1856 to 1113 Sgt William Henry Hart, 3rd Foot.

3rd Foot was The Buffs (Royal East Kent Regiment).

William Henry Hart was born in the Parish of St Philip, one of four small parishes in the original Sydney Cove colony, NSW on 8 July 1823 into a military family. In all probability the award of a DCM to him would be the first gallantry award to an Australian born soldier. Following is the family history from 1796 culminating in the death of William Henry Hart in 1881.

William Hart, the father of William Henry Hart, was born in England at Merton in Surrey on 29 October 1796 and enlisted in The Buffs on 24 November 1814. His next-of-kin at the time was wife Jane, who was shown in his small-book as 'with the regiment'. At the time the 1st Battalion of his regiment was in North America and the 2nd at Brighton in England. William Hart was probably with the 1st Battalion when it formed part of the Army of Occupation in France in 1815-18 as the 2nd Battalion had been disbanded in 1815.

He then proceeded with the regiment to New South Wales. About that time his wife died and he married again and his second wife, Mary, accompanied him to Sydney. They had a son, William Henry Hart, born on 8 July 1823 at Sydney and then another son, John, born on 3 October 1825. William Henry Hart was christened at St Philips Church, Sydney on 20 July 1823, this confirmed from church records. The family then moved to India with the regiment and William Hart, who was now a Sergeant, died at Bhagalpur, India on 21 July 1828. His widow, Mary, married again becoming Mrs Morissey. She died on 1 July 1835 and was buried at Ghazipur, India where the Buffs were quartered. It is therefore safe to assume that her husband was with the regiment and raised his stepson, William Henry Hart, for the next two years at which time he enlisted in The Buffs at Meerut, India on 3 August 1837 at the age of 14 1/2.

William Henry Hart served in the campaign at Gwalior and was present in the action at Punnar on 29 December 1843 and thus was awarded the Gwalior (Punnar) Star. In 1844 The Buffs returned to England and were quartered at Winchester, Hampshire where Hart was married on 24 November 1845. He was promoted to Corporal on 10 July 1846 and then Sergeant on 16 June 1846. He was awarded two Good Conduct Badges, the first on 10 July 1846 and the second on 5 July 1851. In 1853 he left on active service landing with the regiment in Malta on 9 November 1853 then to Greece on 16 November 1854 and the Crimea on 3 May 1855.

Sergeant William Henry Hart was severely wounded in the head at the storming of the Redan (Sebastopol) on 8 September 1855. This was the day Colonel Maude and Private Connors were awarded the Victoria Cross and on this occasion William Henry Hart was awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal. He was also a recipient of the Crimea Medal with clasp Sebastopol and later the Turkish Crimea Medal. As the result of his wounds he was discharged as being unfit for service, thus ending his military career at the age of 32. One of the things he used to relate to his family in his recollections of the war in Crimea was how he was nursed by Florence Nightingale after undergoing major surgery of having a silver plate fixed in his skull.

After his discharge from the army, Hart worked as a carrier at Canterbury, Kent, England with the firm of Sutton & Co. His wife died and he remarried to Mary Maxted of Whitstable, a town north of Kent. He died on 11 March 1881 at the age of 58 and was buried at Wincheap Cemetery in Canterbury.

On 25 April 1902 Colonel Rimington CB wrote to the Assistant Adjutant General Colonial Forces, Pretoria and stated,

'I have the honour to bring to your attention the conduct of the two officers named in the margin (Lieut O.Taylor and Lieut H.Waters 3d NSWMR), with a view to their receiving no further employment in this country.

On marching through Villiersburg from South to North on 13th instant, special precautions were taken to protect the houses of two Boer women, who had on several occasions been of use to His Majesty's Forces by giving information. These women were given orders by my intelligence officer protecting their property, and were also given small presents of sugar, coffee, etc. Military Mounted Police were posted on their houses to protect them. As the rear guard passed through the town these police were withdrawn.

The two rear troops which were commanded by the two officers in question, instead of continuing on with the remainder of the rear guard, and taking up a position on the heights overlooking the town from the North, as they should have done, stopped behind and headed by their officers, looted and set on fire the houses of these women, and robbed them of their money and their groceries. Both officers were shown the protecting passes by the women, and they threw them to one side. My Assistant Provost Marshall had to return and clear them out of the town. One of the women had a cross in her house which had been left with her by the O.C. 3rd N.S.W.M.R. to put over the grave of a man of this regiment, who had been buried in the neighbourhood. This had the man's name and regiment painted on it, and was shown to these officers.

I was not present with my column at the time or I should have had both these officers tried by Field General Court Martial, the officer temporarily in command gave them a public reprimand. I am sending a similar letter to this to the authorities in Australia.'

On 4 May 1902 Lieutenant M.R.Mecham claimed that the women had wrongly identified Lieutenant Waters and it was in fact Mecham who had gone to the women's houses.

In his defence, on board H.M. Transport 'Aurania' on 4 May 1902 Lieutenant Taylor wrote,

'I have the honour to state that on 13th April, when I was in charge of one of the rear troops of Colonel Rimington's Column, I was directed by Major Bennett to burn the houses in Villiersdorp, if not under police protection. As the houses were not so protected when I came to them, I acted on the General Orders which I had received during the drive and proceeded to burn them. Before however any damage had been done I was informed by the acting Provost Marshall that these houses were protected and at once withdrew my men.

I saw no protection passes as stated by the women. One house was burnt by Lieutenant Mecham and not by Lieutenant Waters as stated by the women. The house I went to was not burnt. As far as I know the woman who protected our comrades grave and buried him was not interfered with in any way.'

No further action was taken by the authorities in this matter.

Citation: For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led his company in the attack with great courage and initiative. Later he personally supervised the consolidation of the position, and was indefatigable in his efforts throughout.

Recommendation: Lieut. Bone commanded the left Company of the 13th Battalion in the attack on Stormy Trench N.E. of Gueudecourt on night 4/5th February 17. As soon as the first shot of the opening barrage was fired he jumped over the top and led his men straight to their objective. He was the life of his Company, and set a wonderful example by fearlessly exposing himself to every danger. He was everywhere in his line, supervising the defence, the erection of a bomb stop, wiring, positions of machine guns, etc., and sent me a constant flow of cool, clear, concise and informative messages. He did not have any sleep in the most critical period - the first 48 hours. When the left was counter-attacked he rushed up to the spot with reinforcements and bomb carriers, and saw to every detail of the fight. He is a model Company Commander and I recommend him most highly for distinction.

It was at this battle at Stormy Trench that Australia's most decorated soldier (Private rising to rank of Lt-Colonel) Henry William 'Harry' Murray VC, CMG, DSO & Bar, DCM, was awarded the Victoria Cross.

Mentioned on page 24, 'Wing Commander Scott who had the key responsibility of leading the first Australian helicopter squadron into action was the RAAF's most experienced helicopter pilot. He had first flown a helicopter in 1951 (the Sikorsky S-51) and in 1964, accompanied by engineer officer Flight Lieutenant K.J.Taylor, had visited Borneo and Vietnam.'. Then mentioned again on page 129, 'RAAF helicopter maintenance methods were demonstrated to Vietnamese Air Force parties. Squadron Leader Keith Taylor of Canberra, the squadron's Senior Engineer Officer said that the Vietnamese were particularly impressed by the RAAF serviceability rate.'; copy of Honours and Awards Citation for MBE; RAAF Interim Certificate of Discharge 29Aug75; two metal plates (approx 14.5x15cm) with painted shield marked, 'No 1/ADG FLT/(image of a white bird landing)/RICHMOND', and on the back is painted a lobster with 1 above (ADG is Airfield Defence Guards or 'Adgies' as they are nicknamed).

MBE: LG 1/1/1964, p36; CAG 16/1/1964, p229, in New Year Honours to Flight Lieutenant Keith James Taylor, RAAF.

Citation: Flight Lieutenant Taylor is an engineer officer in the Royal Australian Air Force and is currently serving with No. 9 Helicopter Squadron. During flood rescue operations carried out in south-west Queensland from 31st March to 3rd April, 1963, Flight Lieutenant Taylor volunteered to act as third crewmember aboard Iroquois helicopter A2-387.

As third crewmember, Flight Lieutenant Taylor was lowered by the aircraft's rescue hoist onto rooftops and into deep water to render aid and assist fifty-two people trapped by flood waters. On some occasions it was necessary to lower him a distance of 60-70 feet through or in close proximity to trees, high tension lines, and radio antennas. In addition, on numerous occasions he was hoisted aboard carrying small children in his arms. Flight Lieutenant Taylor willingly carried out these tasks and his firm but tactful handling of the people in distress was of immense value to the successful completion of rescue operations.

In recognition of his meritorious service.

Medal of Bravery: Canada Gazette 20/6/1987 - awarded to Constable Jan Van Den Born of Maple Ridge, British Columbia on 15 June 1987; invested 25 September 1987.

Citation: On April 9, 1986, while on a routine patrol, Cst. Randy Marquardt observed a high-rise apartment building on fire in Coquitlam, British Columbia. Having requested back-up and alerted the fire department, he entered the building, climbed the stairs to the 12th floor and began knocking on doors to warn occupants and direct them to the stairwell. By this time, smoke was dense throughout the building. He proceeded downstairs, stopping on each floor to alert occupants. Unable to enter the 9th floor because of the heavy smoke, he was met on the 8th by Sgt. Andrews who assisted him in his task. On the 6th floor, they were joined by Cst. Reg Steward and, having obtained a master key, they went back to the 12th floor to ensure all occupants had left the building. Again they were unable to enter the 9th floor. Once outside Cst. Marquardt, who had been overcome by smoke inhalation, was helped to an ambulance. Cst. Steward and Sgt. Andrews assisting in crowd control, observed seven people still stranded on 9th floor balconies. Along with Cst. Jan Van Den Born, they re-entered, climbed to the 9th and located apartments where people remained. They had to force their way in and break the balcony windows to get to the frightened occupants. They then assisted them to the stairwell and downstairs where they were treated for smoke inhalation.

All four police officers were awarded the Medal of Bravery. They also received the Police Commissioner's Commendation.

Jan Van Den Born was born in Holland and immigrated to Canada in 1953. He first lived in Maple Ridge, British Columbia in 1961 and was a volunteer fireman from 1966 to 1974. After working as a postman and a municipal employee he joined the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at 26 years of age. Some of his postings were at Surrey, Williams Lake and Coquitlam.

DFM: Supplement to LG 21/9/1945, p4706 - to Can/R.252961 Flt Sgt. John Dallas Dixon, RCAF, No.427 (RCAF) Sqn.

Recommendation: This Air Gunner has completed 29 heavy operational bombing attacks against the enemy and his work at all times has been of an extremely high calibre. He possesses coolness and displays exceptional fearlessness in the face of danger and his cheerful confidence, loyalty and devotion to duty has inspired a high standard of morale not only in his crew but to all who come in contact with him. In view of Flight Sergeant Dixon's splendid record, I recommend that he be awarded the non-immediate Distinguished Flying Medal. (19 April 1945)

Remarks by Station Commander: Flight Sergeant Dixon is an extremely capable Air Gunner with a fine operational record. Possessing a fine offensive spirit and a cheerful disposition, he has been an inspiring influence on the rest of the crew. He has been a decided asset to the squadron. Recommended for the non-immediate Distinguished Flying Medal.

RCAF Operation Wings: On the authority of the Chief of the Air Staff Flight Sergeant J.D.Dixon has been awarded the Operational Wings of the Royal Canadian Air Force in recognition of gallant service, in that he has completed a tour of operational duty in action against the enemy. (The research includes a copy of the page of a book which explains this award. The award to Flt Sgt Dixon is recorded on his service file.)
