British Guiana, gold jewellery dollars (2), made c.1910 in Georgetown, obv. fully rigged vessel within a garter inscribed British Guiana and latin legend Damus Petimusque Vicissim (We both give and seek), rev. St. George and the dragon, made as cuff-links with initials CJW as a monogram on stamped 15 crt. gold hallmarked KCM on round studs balancing the "dollars", (Pr.69 and see Num. Circ November 1970 p.201). Both dollars mounted in centre of reverse, otherwise extremely fine and very rare.

$950

These extraordinary pieces are usually classed as a pattern for a gold dollar, but are in reality souvenir medalets, issued by a local jeweller Richard P. Kaps of Georgetown about 1910. Most known specimens show traces of having had a mount removed and from an advertisement in the Handbook of British Guiana 1909 (p.xxii) he made these pieces into pendants, links, brooches, scarf pins, buttons etc. The Brushfield sale of July 30, 1945 (lot 28) included an example, likewise another specimen in the Palace Collection Sale of Egypt in 1954 (lot 858), Pridmore notes that E. Wodak had a specimen. This pair of cuff-links made from these 'dollars' is possibly unique.

Outstanding 1916 Canadian Sovereign Rarity

3072*
Canada, George V, sovereign, 1916C (Ottawa). Well struck with high rims, unmarked fields, minute contact mark on obverse rim at 4 o'clock takes this away from almost perfection, subdued mint bloom, choice uncirculated and extremely rare, one of the finest known. Would grade as MS64 in USA.

$35,000

This coin sat in a Sydney collection for over fifty years, unrecognised by the owner as a significant rarity until discovered by Noble Numismatics. The owner was a former employee of the Commonwealth Bank and believes he obtained the coin from a member of the public as a bullion sovereign. The quality of strike and preservation suggests it may be a VIP presentation piece.

$100

Anguilla declared independence on July 11, 1967 and seceded from the Federation. Britain refused to accept the declaration and appointed an administrator. In February 1969 they removed the British ties and established a Republic of Anguilla. Britain retook the island and eventually a new Constitution in 1976 established Anguilla as a self-governing British dependent territory. The above issues were authorised by the Anguilla Island Council. Each had been redeemed for ten U.S. dollars. The countermarking was done by a private firm in San Francisco, California.

Coole 6722, 6728, Vol.5 p.478, 482, Not in Sch. or TFP). With green patina, very fine and very rare.

$150

Coole in 'Coins in China's History', discusses these pieces under 'Odd Shaped Mediums of Exchange', and that these pieces were initially used in that transitional period between the bartering age and the coin age. They were made in many shapes and resembled various valuable utensils and objects used at that time including fish, bells, lotus roots, shields etc. Thus these objects in copper described above look like the early jade musical instruments called ch'in and they were used in orchestras like the modern metallic triangles. Dragon head 'ch'in' are rarely seen and seem to have some monetary exchange value.

3160*

China, Chou Dynasty, cast ghost face money or ant nose money as a money tree of 17 ant nose coins, State of Ch'u Chou dynasty, (770-220 B.C.), obv. several markings, 200 mm. length, (200 grams), (cf. Opitz p.148-9, cf. Coole Vol.2, 95; cf. TFP 4). Very fine and scarce.

$400

The Chou Dynasty (1125 - 255 BC) paved the way for the first unification of China in 221 BC. During the Zhou dynasty, China evolved from a feudal state with power divided among vassals to one with a strong centralized government. The practice of casting weapons, farm implements and coins out of iron and copper had begun during this time, permitting the Chou to grow considerably. This was a time of great prosperity that would not be seen again in China for many centuries. Included in this was the development of money, which changed from its old form to one where coins acquired inscriptions of various types, mostly referring to weights, values and location of origin. In this case there is an ancient 'cowrie' shaped piece, but with the addition of the wording, known as i'pi'chien or ant nose money. Each high quality piece dates from the 3rd Century before Christ and bears a hole for easy handling in quantity.
