DOCUMENTS

3220

Island of Van Diemen's Land, Conditional Pardon on vellum and dated 5 July 1848 for Charles Heatherington originally tried at Moulmein and sentenced to Life and transported to Van Diemen's Land on the ship, Strathisla, a condition of the pardon being that he not return to the East India Company's Possessions, signed at Hobart Town by Sir William Thomas Denison, Lieutenant-Governor, with large wax seal. Three folds and some foxing, otherwise fine.

$500

Charles Heatherington was a soldier born in 1800 at Armagh, Ireland and married with three children in Madras, India. He was serving with the East India Company in India and was convicted at Moulmein on 17 March 1836 for Sodomy and sentenced to transportation for life.

Sir William Thomas Denison KCB was Lieutenant Governor of Van Diemen's Land from 1847 to 1855. He was also Governor of New South Wales from 1855 to 1861 and then Governor of Madras from 1861 to 1866.

3221

Van Diemen's Land, Conditional Pardon on vellum for Vincenzo Bucchieri, signed at Hobart Town on 6 January 1841 by Sir John Franklin, with registration seal. Writing very faded and some toning, otherwise very good.

$100

Vincenzo Bucchieri was born in Sicily. He was a soldier in the Sicilian Army serving with the British when he deserted in Malta and was convicted at La Valette to transportation for life. He arrived in New South Wales on 18 January 1812. He was then sent to Van Diemen's Land and arrived on 19 February 1812. On 29 October 1842, an inquest into his death found that he died of water on the chest, a natural death.

Sir John Franklin was a British Royal Navy officer and an Arctic explorer. He was Lieutenant Governor of Van Diemen's Land from 1837 to 1843. He is featured on the Australian five pounds banknote of 1954 and 1961.

3222

Van Diemen's Land, Conditional Pardon on vellum to James Brown previously transported for life in 1832, provided he never returns to the United Kingdom, signed by Sir Henry Edward Fox Young, Captain General and Governor on 17 September 1857, with a large impressed seal. With folds and foxing, otherwise fine.

$100

James Brown from the town of Kingston upon Thames was sentenced to transportation for life at Salop Assizes. He was transported from England on the convict ship 'England', departing 31 March 1832 and arriving at Van Diemen's Land on 18 July 1832.

Sir Henry Edward Fox Young was a colonial administrator. He had a varied career finally being appointed Governor of Van Diemen's Land in 1855. This proved to be a difficult task with allegations of corruption within the Convict Department. He finally resigned in 1861 and returned to England where he had many interests. He died on 18 September 1870.

3223

Island of Van Diemen's Land, Police Office Richmond, 1839, Conviction notice printed with Royal arms at top and basic details and then with other information handwritten, the notice named for Charles Watson for employing without lawful excuse or authority George Hall who at the time was a Transported offender under an unexpired and unremitted sentence of hard labor, fined the sum of twenty pounds and costs, dated 11 May 1839 and signed by Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, William Henry Breton and Francis Smith. Three folds and some minor top edge nicks, otherwise fine.

$100

William Henry Breton was a lieutenant in the Royal Navy. He wrote the books 'Excursions in New South Wales, Western Australia and Van Diemen's Land, during the years 1830, 1831, 1832 and 1833' published first in 1833 as well as 'Scandinavian Sketches, or, A Tour in Norway' published in 1835. He began his third visit to Australia on 15 November 1835 landing at Hobart. On 4 December 1835 he was appointed Justice of the Peace for Van Diemen's Land and a week later appointed a Coroner of the Territory and Police Magistrate for Circular Head. On 24 December 1835 he was Police Magistrate at Richmond and also Commissioner of the Court of Requests and Deputy Chairman of the Quarter Sessions for the Police District of Richmond. In 1841 he was appointed Police Magistrate in Launceston. After a few leaves of absence he resigned in 1852.

3224

Island of Van Diemen's Land, Attorney-General's charge sheet on vellum and dated 15 April 1844 against Michael Norton of Richmond for the theft of one hat to the value of ten shillings from John Melven, signed by the prosecutor, Thomas Horne, at left is written, 'Plea Not Guilty'. Stains and foxing and some edge nicks, otherwise very good.

$60

Thomas Horne had a very troubled financial history and only held the position of Attorney-General for a short time although he did hold many other government positions even being elected to the Legislative Council as the member for Hobart.

3225

Island of Van Diemen's Land, Attorney-General's charge sheet on vellum and dated 18 April 1853 against William Ward for the theft of twelve hundred weight of hay from Randall Young, signed by the prosecutor, Valentine Fleming, on reverse is recorded 'Plea Guilty' and was sentenced to hard labour for two years. Stains and some vellum loss and pin-holes, otherwise very good.

$70

Sir Valentine Fleming was born in England and educated at Bangor and Trinity College, Dublin. He was appointed commissioner of insolvent debtors, Hobart Town, Van Diemen's Land in 1841. He was appointed Solicitor-General in 1844, Attorney-General in 1848, a member of the Legislative Council in 1851 and Chief justice of the Supreme Court of Van Diemen's Land in 1854. He was knighted in 1856.

3227

Van Diemen's Land Acreage Grant, a vellum document by His Excellency Lachlan Macquarie Esquire, Captain General and Governor in Chief of His Majesty's Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies giving and granting to John Whaley and His Heirs eighty acres of land in the District of Strangford, Van Diemen's Land, provided he does not sell it or fail to cultivate it in the term of five years otherwise the grant is null and void, signed and sealed on 25 July 1821 by L. Macquarie. Age toned and faded writing but still easily read, very good.

$200

Major General Lachlan Macquarie CB, was a British Army officer who was Governor of New South Wales and its dependencies from 1810 to 1821 and had a leading role in the social, economic and architectural development of the colony. In 1813 he produced the first official currency in the colony, namely the holey dollar and dump. Various places and buildings in Australia bear tribute to his name including Macquarie Street in Sydney, the location of the NSW Parliament.

3228

Van Diemen's Land Acreage Grant, a vellum document by His Excellency Sir Thomas Brisbane, Knight Commander of the Most Honorable Military Order of the Bath, Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over His Majesty's Territory of New South Wales and its Dependencies giving and granting to John Faber and His Heirs three hundred acres of land in Van Diemen's Land, on certain conditions including the employment to work on that land of three transported convicts until the expiration or remission of their Terms of Transportation otherwise the grant is null and void, signed and sealed on 30 June 1823 by T. Brisbane. Age toned and faded writing but still legible, very good.
