$250

Ex Robb Family Collection.

3330*

$500

lot 3331

3331*

Bolivia, Philip IV, (1621-1665), cob eight reales, Potosi Mint, (24.35 grams), assayer T, partially dated issue [16]49, with partial inscription HYL[?] on reverse, (Calbeto 1629 [T] 1631 for date), KM.19a [type], cf. Calico 423-424, Cayon 6402 [noted for date and assayer]). Double struck and weak in places, waterworn from wreck, large flan crack, fine but of great rarity only noted for piece in Cayon.

$400

The reverse letters noted above are clearly a die engraver's error. The issue represents one of the last condemned issues before the rapid (1652) improvement that took place on the King's orders that resulted in great changes in quality and style that came from this mint.

3332*

Bolivia, Charles II, (1665-1700), cob eight reales, Potosi Mint, (26.87 grams), assayer F, 1699, partial dates with reverse 9 as a 6 in error, (Calbeto 1121, KM.26, Calico 295, Cayon 7702). Fine - very fine for issue and rare.
