Sydney businessman W.S. Gardiner donated a trophy made in England, called the Gardiner Challenge Cup which was contested every year from 1888 and was open to all teams from the state of New South Wales, members of the British Football Association. Prior to 1900, Balmain Football Club won the Cup in three consecutive years, 1895-1897.

It was reported in the The Sydney Morning Herald, Thursday 30 May 1895, p6 that 'a meeting of delegates to the British Football Association was held on Tuesday evening in the Protestant Hall, Castlereagh Street, Mr W McMillan (President) being in the chair. The principal business was the drawing for the Gardiner Cup competition, for which the following clubs had entered:-Balmain, Pyrmont Rangers, Thistle, Minmi, Parkgrove, Adamstown Rosebud and Helensburgh. The Hon secretary (Mr D Gunn) notified that the Helensburgh Club had withdrawn, and the delegates decided in order to allow of four clubs remaining in the semi final to have two byes, and the draw resulted as follows- Pyrmont Rangers v Minmi, at Wentworth Park; Adamstown Rosebud v Thistle, at Adamstown; Balmain, a bye, Parkgrove, a bye. The competition is to start on the 29th June.'

A further report in The Sydney Morning Herald, Monday 14 October 1895, p6 stated, 'The Balmain Football Club (British Association rules) held their second annual social gathering in the Balmain Town Hall last night, when there was a large attendance. A pleasing ceremony was carried out by the president who presented gold medals in connection with the Gardiner Challenge Cup competition to the following players -G. O'Connell, J. Gibson (captain), A Tomb, A. Ferguson, R. Thorburn, W. Harrison, J. Ferguson, A. Phillip, T. Shipton, F. Holt, C. White, M. Hall, and H. Bradley. The handsome cup won by the Balmain club was on view, together with an excellent photo group of the team. The proceedings were under the guidance of Messrs. A. Donnolly and J. Ferguson, and capital music was rendered by Hartley's string band.'

10. Convict notes, five pages, see also back of first page of notes.

Also, newspaper cuttings as well as photocopy of newspaper photo of Mr E.A. Prior and a copy of letter from Clarrie Martin, Attorney General, NSW to Mr J. Harvey Prior, Barrister-at-Law, dated September 19, 1947, and including a typed transcript of notes (7 foolscap pages) taken at the Industrial Commission on Monday 15 September 1947, the meeting being held upon the occasion of the death of Mr. E.A. Prior, late Chief Industrial Magistrate (held this position from 1928 - 1947). Tributes to Mr J. Harvey Prior were made by the Attorney General the Hon C.E. Martin M.L.A., Mr Kenny, President of the Trades & Labour Council, Mr Woodcock of the Employer's Federation, Messrs Landon and Bryant, Industrial Advocates, Mr Bellemore, Under Secretary, Department of Labour and Industry, Mr Coote of the Miscellaneous Workers' Union, and others.

Part of Mr C.E. Martin's tribute reads, 'Like so many other distinguished public servants he had very humble origins - his first appointment to the Service was in January 1891 as letter-carrier and telegraph probationer, from which very humble post he rose to the very distinguished office that he held at his death. He joined the Petty Sessions Branch of the Department of the Attorney General and of Justice as a junior clerk in August 1899. His first appointment as Police Magistrate was at Nyngan from January 1922. He later served at Mudgee and Wollongong and, on the 1st March 1928, was appointed Chief Industrial Magistrate, when began that long career in that jurisdiction which will cause his name to be remembered for many years to come.

Another interesting phase of his life that I would take the liberty of mentioning is that the late Mr. Prior was largely, very largely, instrumental in having the Rules of the Supreme Court amended to permit Petty Sessions officers, after a period of service as such, to sit for the Solicitors' Examinations, and he was the first solicitor to be admitted under the amended Rules. It is also relevant to remember that we say farewell today to a South African veteran. On 31st December 1899 Mr Prior was granted leave without pay to proceed to South Africa on military duties, and returned from his war service there on 4th May 1901.' See also lots 2470 and 2471.

'T.T. Jones and Son, Goldsmiths and Watchmakers, have an extensive establishment in George Street. The business is an offshoot of the old firm of T. Jones, of Ludgate Hill, London, and was started in 1853 by the present senior partner, Mr. T. T. Jones. A leading feature of the firm is the manufacture of Masonic jewels and regalia, which are turned out on the premises equal in excellence to anything to be obtained in London; in fact, it is not uncommon for the firm to receive orders from the great metropolis of the world. Some exceedingly fine silver plate is manufactured, besides which all the work of a gold and silversmith, watchmaker, and manufacturing jeweller is carried out by twenty-five or thirty hands - in strange contrast with the time when the business occupied the attention of but one. Mr. G. T. Jones, who has lived in Sydney from the age of two years, was educated at the Grammar School, and now conducts the business.' Source: The Aldine Centennial History of New South Wales - W. Frederic Morrison - 1888.
