Ex Collection of John Tamplin in the Dix, Noonan Webb Sale of 2 April 2003 (lot 167). Frederick William O'Gorman. Born 08Jul1891. Joined the Indian Police 02Jul1913. Highly decorated during a lengthy and eventful career, O'Gorman was eventually appointed Inspector General of Police, Province of Bombay in 1945. Died 05Jan1949 London. Note that his brother Michael A. O'Gorman was awarded the KPM 01Jan1923 and a Bar to his KPM 01Jan1926. KPM Gazette of India 01Jan1924 'While serving as District Superintendent of Police in the Bijapur District, Mr O'Gorman was required to undertake operations against a dangerous gang of Berad dacoits which had broken out of jail and for nine months had been terrorising the countryside. Mr O'Gorman initiated a well thought out campaign and it was entirely due to his organising ability and untiring tenacity that his plans ended in success. Mr O'Gorman was himself twice under fire during the progress of these operations and it was in no small measure due to his personal influence that the gang was exterminated. Since his transfer from Bijapur to the District of Kaira, Mr O'Gorman has been successful in breaking up another dangerous gang of dacoits. His services have been recognised by the Government of Bombay on both the occasions'. First Bar to KPM Gazette of India 01Jan1930 'At the Ganpati celebrations at Surat in September 1928 widespread and frenzied rioting, which lasted for 24 hours and in the course of which numerous cold-blooded murders were committed, took place between Muhammadans and Hindus in spite of the most careful precautions. Throughout these disturbances Mr O'Gorman had numerous personal encounters with infuriated rioters armed with lethal weapons and displayed the highest courage in dispersing them. His spirited action, resource and organising ability were largely responsible for bringing the public disorder in a populous city like Surat under control in so short a space of time. This was accomplished without using firearms except on an occasion when the Police were obliged to fire in their own defence and killed one man'. Second Bar to KPM Gazette of India 01Jan1936 'On the night of the 23rd January 1935, a Sikh of Poona City shot dead a Mussalman and an Arab woman. Mr O'Gorman was summoned to the scene where he found that the Sikh had ensconced himself with a B.L. gun in a strong position on the top storey of a large building, occupied by a number of men, women and children, from which he commanded the common staircase. The Sikh threatened to shoot anyone who approached and to have rushed the staircase would almost inevitably led to a heavy loss of life. Having drawn a cordon round the building, Mr O'Gorman with a party of armed policemen occupied a room at the top of an opposite house from which rifles were trained on the house where the Sikh was hiding. It was of importance that the Sikh should either be made to surrender or be rendered harmless by shooting; for any ineffective action by Police would probably have resulted in the Sikh firing indiscriminately, and causing several casualties. The Sikh, however, did not expose himself, and subsequent attempts by Mr O'Gorman and a Sikh priest who arrived on the scene, who both addressed the murderer from the front of the house merely elicited a determined reply from the Sikh to the effect that he would never surrender, and would shoot anyone who came near him. Finally however the Sikh told the priest to bring up the 'Saheb'. Mr O'Gorman, thereupon, accompanied the priest to the top storey. There he discovered a passage leading to a room where the Sikh stood with his gun. In front lay the body of one of the murdered persons, and stepping over this, Mr O'Gorman entered the room, calling out that he was unarmed, and asking the Sikh to surrender, which he did. He had six live cartridges in his possession. The cool and patient manner in which Mr O'Gorman handled the situation undoubtedly prevented further loss of life. He displayed admirable personal courage, and power of leadership in himself incurring the great risk of going unarmed up the stairs to confront the armed murderer'. OBE London Gazette 01Jan1941. Sir Robert George Wyndham Herbert GCB was the first Premier of Queensland. Born at Brighton, England on 12 June 1831, the only son of the Honourable Algernon Herbert, a younger son of the first Earl of Carnarvon. Educated at Eton and Balliol College, Oxford he won a Balliol scholarship in 1849 and then the Hertford and Ireland scholarships. He won the Latin verse prize in 1852, graduated with second class final honours from the classical school, was elected Fellow of All Souls in 1854 and was Eldon law scholar. He was private secretary to William Ewart Gladstone in 1855 and was called to the bar of the Inner Temple in 1858. Herbert arrived at Brisbane on 10 December 1859 as private secretary to Sir George Ferguson Bowen who was appointed first governor of the colony of Queensland. Immediately after arriving, he was appointed Colonial Secretary and with the governor and others formed an executive council. He was appointed Premier of Queensland in December 1859 and at the first election held in early 1860 was returned unopposed. Herbert continued as Premier of Queensland until February 1866, proving himself to be a good leader with the Queensland parliament, during his tenure, being the most stable and functional of all those in the colonies. In February 1866 in the wake of some colonial financial difficulties he resigned. The subsequent premier, Arthur Macalister served as premier only until 20 July 1866 and then, at the request of the governor, Herbert formed a temporary ministry for three weeks until Macalister returned. Immediately after, Herbert returned to England and shortly after was appointed Assistant Secretary to the Board of Trade. In 1870 he was appointed Assistant Under-Secretary for the Colonies and in 1871 became permanent Under-Secretary of State for the Colonies holding the position for twenty one years. He left the colonial office in 1892 but did return for a few months at the request of Joseph Chamberlain. From 1893-1896 he was Agent-General for Tasmania and worked actively towards the formation of the British Empire League. He held the honorary office of High Sheriff of the County of London in 1899. He was also Director of Peninsular and Oriental Steamship Company and as well, Knight (First Class) of the Order of the Crown of Johore. He was appointed Chairman of the Tariff Commission in December 1903 and on 6 May 1905 he died at Ickleton. During his time in Queensland, Herbert was accompanied by his companion, John Bramston who he had first met at Balliol College. The pair shared rooms there and later in London and when Herbert was Premier, Bramston was his Attorney-General. During their time in Queensland they created a farm and called the farmhouse, Herston, being a combination of their surnames. The Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital now occupies the site. The name was also given to the Brisbane suburb of Herston. Robert Herbert was conferred with a KCB in 1882, in 1892 a GCB and in this same year was appointed Chancellor of the Order of St Michael and St George (GCMG). A unique item of great Australian colonial historical significance owned by the first Premier of Queensland. MID LG 24Sep1941 pg5573. DFC LG 01Apr1941 pg 2902 'In February 1941, while leading a formation of 3 Hurricanes on patrol, this officer observed 9 Junkers 87 dive bombing and machine gunning near Mersa El Burg. He immediately called his flight by radio telephone but, failing to make himself understood, dived to the attack accompanied by only one of his section. They were immediately attacked by 15 Messerschmitt 110s and in the ensuing combat, Flight Lieutenant Perrin shot down a Junkers and a Messerschmitt before a cannon shell burst in his petrol tank covering him with petrol, setting his aircraft on fire and slightly wounding his right eye. Despite this he continued to attack another Messerschmitt at low level until his ammunition was expended. He then crash landed his aircraft. Throughout the engagement, this officer displayed outstanding leadership and courage in the face of greatly superior numbers of enemy forces'. DFC presented by His Majesty the King at Buckingham Palace, London, 27Feb1945. Perrin joined the RAAF in July 1938 and after completing his training in Victoria at Point Cook in July 1940 he embarked for Egypt as a Flying Officer with 3 Squadron. He damaged a CR.42 in December. Then while flying Gladiators. in February 1941 he shot down a Ju 87 and later a Bf 110 while flying a Hurricane V7757, however his plane was shot down in flames as he was attacking another Bf 110. Partly blinded in one eye and suffering from burns he crash landed. Perrin made a hundred yard dash to a group of trees as the Germans dived in twos and threes attempting to machine gun him. Later he was found by a forward patrol and taken to the drome at Benina. He was treated for his injuries in Tobruk. The hospital ship Perrin was evacuated on was sunk by an enemy plane but he survived this too. In April whilst flying a Hurricane P3967 he destroyed three Ju 87s over Bu Cassal. 3 Squadron changed to Tomahawks for the Syrian campaign in June. Perrin's sixth and final confirmed kill was a Ju 88. Sometime after this he was posted back to Australia. During 1942 the 5 and 24 Wirraway Squadrons were under his command. In 1943 he was CO of 76 Squadron flying Kittyhawks from Milne Bay then from Goodenough Island. He became Deputy Director of Operations at RAAF HQ and during 1944-1946 was SASO RAAF HQ Overseas as Wing Commander. As Group Captain, Perrin held various command and staff appointments including Director of Air Staff Plans, Department of Air (1957), Services Advisor, New Delhi (1959), Director of Organisation, Department of Air (1962), The Superintendent, Woomera (1963) and with the Australian High Commission in Wellington, N.Z. Captain Brian Jackson A129298 Royal Australian Infantry Corps served in Vietnam with AATTV 23Sep1966 to 20Jul1967. MID LG 10Dec1968, CAG 18Apr1968. Citation, 'Captain Brian Jackson was commissioned in the Citizen Military Forces on 9th April 1957 and was posted to 31st Infantry Battalion. He continued his service with this unit until he enlisted for full-time duty, and was posted to the Australian Army Training Team, Vietnam in September, 1966. He was posted as Intelligence Officer of Detachment B-50, 5th Special Forces Group (Airborne) at Nha Trang. This special group was in its formative stages and he had to organize the entire intelligence effort of the unit, with no guide lines to follow and no other similar unit to copy. The now complete intelligence effort of Detachment B-50 is a direct result of Captain Jackson's diligence, commonsense and sound judgment. He devised simple, but detailed procedures, for briefing and de-briefing reconnaissance teams, and the method of recording their information, originated by Captain Jackson, is now used by other units, with similar missions, in 5th Special Forces Group. The Planning, formation and maintenance of peak performance of the Intelligence Section of Detachment B-50 was due entirely to the diligent efforts, and professional leadership qualities displayed by Captain Jackson. He has brought great credit to himself, his unit, and the Australian Military Forces.' With research.
